John had two children by his first wife whose name is unknown: Cratia Hungerford, born 6 Dec. 1959 in Conn., living in Cocoa Beach, Fla., in 2005,³¹² and a son John Hungerford, Jr., who predeceased his father. John remarried to Beverly in Nov. 1966 and divorced her on 23 July 1969. The second marriage did not yield any children.³¹³

2094. ROBERT EDWARD⁹ JUSTICE (Mary Caroline “Carrie”⁸ Curtis, Elizabeth Greentree⁷ Baker, John Anson⁶, Josiah Jewett⁵, William⁴, Nathaniel³, Baysey², John¹) was born on 10 July 1895 in Champaign, Illinois,³¹⁴ and died on 25 June 1952 in Stearns Co., Minnesota.³¹⁵ He married in about 1921, probably in North Dakota,³¹⁶ BERTHA SYVERTSON, who was born on 21 February 1902 in Grand Rapids, North Dakota,³¹⁷ and died there on 12 January 1976.³¹⁸ The couple was divorced before 10 April 1930.³¹⁹

Robert moved to Grand Forks, North Dakota, and was working as a laborer for a sewer construction contractor there on 5 June 1917 when he registered for the draft for World War I.³²⁰ He was single at the time. He probably moved to North Dakota initially to find work, or he might have wanted to visit his cousin Nellie (Edmundson) Marshall, who had moved to the town of McClusky in about 1903.

Robert was inducted into the Army on 22 September 1917, and was sent for training at Camp Dodge, in Des Moines, Iowa. He served in Company K of the 352d Infantry until 18 November 1917, and transferred to Company L of the 348th Infantry until his discharge at Camp Pike, Arkansas on 10 January 1918.³²¹ He was honorably discharged as a private for a physical disability that was caused by an accident during training. After the war, he worked as a laborer in a factory in Decatur, Illinois, where he lived as a boarder in the Early Dial household, according to the 1920 U.S. census.³²²

He apparently met his future wife Bertha Syvertson while he was working in North Dakota, and probably married her there in about 1921. The couple moved to Minnesota and had four children between 1922 and 1929.³²³ Robert L., Richard J., Eugene, and Dennis.

By 10 April 1930, Bertha had moved the family back to Grand Forks, North Dakota, according to the U.S. Census taken on that day.³²⁴ She was divorced and working as a telephone operator. Robert was not present at the time of the census, his whereabouts unknown. It is not clear whether the couple was divorced in Minnesota before the move or in Grand Forks after the move.

Bertha stayed on in Grand Forks and raised the four children alone after the divorce. She lived there for the rest of her life, passing away on 21 January 1976.³²⁵ Robert died on 25 June 1952 in Stearns Co., Minnesota.³²⁶
